Dear Families and Friends of Rudyard,

Thank you to those of you who have taken advantage of this week's Inset Day to make it part of your family holiday. I hope that everyone has a lovely half term break and with the prediction of a Heat Wave the sun will hopefully shine!

I am sure Year 6 are looking forward to their Residential Trip which is straight after the holiday and all the other lovely trips that the teachers have planned for their classes. A reminder that the office are always happy to take weekly small payments on your behalf that helps spread the cost of trips.

We look forward to seeing the children back at school on Monday 4th June.

Happy Holiday!

Best Wishes

Joanne Smith

Young City Reads

We received a lovely email this week from a Year 5 parent regarding last Friday's trip to the Dome to celebrate the Young City Reads...

I just thought I would write a note to you regarding the recent Year 5 trip to the Dome to meet the writer and illustrator of 'Kid Normal'. As a parent, I thought that it was really amazing that the trip was at ZERO cost to families and that all of the Year 5 children had the same opportunity to go along. As you are only too aware, there is almost at least some element of cost, either for the entry itself or the transport and this, I know can make it difficult for the school to plan trips, especially in this more financially challenging period for schools. Imagine my amazement when I then found out how lucky we were as a school when I realised talking to a friend that other schools had to pay a substantial cost to attend the same venue. I personally would like to thank everybody who had a hand in securing funds to cover the cost of the trip & transport to and from the venue. I know my boys really enjoyed the experience and particularly liked the 'beat box' and the 'random child selector' during the session.

Thanks again to all involved! Go Rudyard!!

Kind regards
Helen Taylor

As a school it is lovely for us to get such positive feedback that support all the trips and events that we strive so hard to maintain and keep at the forefront of what we do for all of our families! Thank you Helen.

Don't forget its INSET DAY TOMORROW!!
